Monday

A glimpse of the city: Florence seen from above. The "city dweller" itinerary, which offers diverse perspectives from above, an occasion to discover and admire the most famous monuments, and to visit charming places away from the crowds. The walk concludes with a welcome-aperitivo.

Tuesday

The hill: Fiesole and its surroundings. A territory as rich in history and culture as Fiesole presents a great variety of monuments and cultural places, of history and of art. A stroll among hills covered with olive trees, cypress and pine, parishes and historic villas, which finishes up with a snack consisting of tastes of local specialties.

Wednesday

The Chianti region: A full day's excursion. Between the splendid cities of Florence and Siena extends a beautiful and hilly region famous worldwide for its panoramas and its wines. From Greve to the fortified village of Montefioralle, the zone is a true jewel. You'll have lunch in a typical trattoria before reaching Panzano to conclude our day.

Thursday

The river: From the 'Park of the Cascine' in Florence to the 'Park of the Renai' in Signa, to acquaint you with the river Arno. An itinerary that has its heart in the greenery and the river, which downstream from the city, returns to its natural dimensions and offers views of great beauty and serenity. Snacks in the park.
